DAY 2: SEATTLE TOURING

A cutting-edge metropolis surrounded by nature, Seattle's healthy balance of urban and environmental attractions make it a fantastic place to discover.

Today, your expert local guide will whisk you from one iconic site to the next, enabling you to immerse yourself in the history and culture of this vibrant city. Of course, no visit would be complete without a stop at the historic Space Needle. Head to the neighboring Chihuly Gardens, where glass work takes on a whole new meaning. Walk underneath the historic city center through a series of passageways known as the Seattle Underground, great for kids or for the young at heart! This tour can be customized to your desires, so music fans can stroll through the fascinating EMP Museum, while art lovers can peruse the Seattle Art Museum. Foodies and coffee lovers can follow their taste buds through the quaint city streets, as the local guide points out the culinary hotspots. Flight enthusiasts can take advantage of an unforgettable tour of the Boeing Facilities, where you will have the chance to see the assembly and production of the impressive Dreamliner collection.

DAY 3: SAN JUAN ISLANDS

Early this morning, your car and driver will be waiting to take you to nearby Lake Union Airport in time for your seaplane to the San Juan Islands. Before long, you will land at Friday Harbor where you will be met by your tour guide for a brief introduction and private tour of the small but fascinating Whale Museum.

Enjoy lunch at your leisure at one of the few restaurants here before heading back down to the marina in time for your whale watch excursion.

Lasting a thrilling 3.5 hours, your tour will take place on board a state-of-the-art sailing vessel with your captain and expert naturalist guide. The pristine waters of the San Juan islands are currently home to over 80 Orcas and you will surely be able to see a few pods from your boat, up-close and personal! These pods are found in this area from May to October due to the high concentration of salmon – the orca’s primary food source. During this tour you will not only experience the fascinating marine life first-hand but truly gain a greater appreciation and understanding from your expert guide.

Following the tour, you will have some time to wander Friday Harbor before your evening return flight to Seattle where upon arrival you will self-transfer back to your hotel.

On your final evening, let us arrange dinner at one of Seattle’s top eateries.
